

The “Kyozei-Kaishaku” doctrine: Literally meaning “the interpretation of the teaching material.” It actually refers to the emotional engagement of the teachers with their teaching material.